MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL

Why the Charge of Purjury Was Pressed udge Lee's Fa rness in the Case. Rutherford Discharged from Custody.

At 6:30 o'clock last evening the jury to the Ashloy case, which began in the sounty court mine days ago, rounded of verded of guilty and fixed the purch ment of the decised ut one meants in shoke more than two hours and when he diused it was point to be seen that he had made a profound impression upon the speciators.

Judge Lee then read the instructions to the jurces and they filed out to their room, where they remained until the hour for recess arrived. Cour reconvened at 3 clock and for three hours brandreds of people, packed on the brandreds and in the alskies, waited for the jury to reader their vesdict. As night frew on the crowd increased and when he light biazed forth the chamber resembled a theatre with the authence waiting to witness the closing s ene in a tragedy.

The object of swearing cut the warrant against Mr. Ashby charging him with pedgraph is to break down his testing a word in the Bridgeforth divorce with, and to pave the way to success in a heavy damage suit which Mr. Bridgeforth filed asst year against Mr. J. B. Brittingham. It was upon the resimency of Mr. Ashby in the divorce suit that Indige Gunera causeill'a decree to be entered growthing to Mrs. Bridgeforth disposed of his interest do the function store to Mr. Bridgement of the function store to Mr. Bridgeforth of the process of the function store to Mr. Bridgeforth disposed of his interest do the function store to Mr. Bridgeforth of the process of the function of the function of J. H. Gammed, whose testimony had supported that of Mr. Ashby, he resolved to sue Mr. Britingham, whom je harges to be the author of all his week. The damage suit will protably be trivial at the coming term of the trenti court, ext month, by Judge Blackstone.

A NEW POSTAGE STAMP.

Postmaster-General Gary Was Decided to Order a Special Series.

For the third time in the history of the Nation, in recognition of the importance of a brilliant enterprise, Postmaster-General Gary has decided to order a series of special postage stimps, commemorative of the holding of the Transmississippi and International Exposition at Omaha in 1898. tional Exposition at Omaha in 1898. The stamps will be issued in denominations of 1-cent, 2-cent, 5-cent, 10-cent and $1, making it possible for the public to use these stamps on all ottgoing foreign as well as domestic mail matter and packets of merchandise. In the United States there are 70,000 Postoffices so that the widesuread girants offices, so that the widespread circulaoffices, so that the widespread circula-tion of these special stamps, suggestive of the Transmississippi and Interna-tional Exposition, will be readily at-tained. The issue lends the exposition the prestige of Government recognition the prestige of Government recognition and support.

In issuing these special stamps it is not designed by the Postmaster-General tq withdraw from sale the current series, as was the case during the World's Fair. The series of special stamps for the Transmississippi and International Expressions will be sup-International Exposition will be sup-plied to any office in the United States, and every Postmaster will find an sc-tive demand for them from the start, not only by stamp collectors, but by hundreds of thousands of people who will prefer them during the exposition period in place of the regular series.

The new issue of special stamps will be of marked artistic order in design, symbolical of the great transmississippi region and its tributaries. Third Assistant Postmaster-General Merritt, who will have charge of the selection of subjects, has written a number of letters to the leading artists of the United States, asking for suggestions relative to designs. The designs contemplate portraits of distinguished persons identified with the country are sons identified with the country, ap-propriate historical events as illustrated by existing paintings or engrav-

MEW YORK, Feb, 18.—The tone of speculation was doubtful and hostating in Wall street today, and a large prependerance of the day's dealings force in sugar and the grangers. Nearly save per cent, of the total transactions were in these stocks. Compled with the fact that the total saves of stocks showd a marked decrease from the recent everage, the large proportion absorbed by the specialities formed a significant ownering managery upon the condition into which the market has fallen.

After the opening weakness, due to supposity with London and some other orders exchanges, had been overcome to look as the same the recent of the market has fallen and from the grangers had prevailed at he market, but the increasing weakness of sugar, coupled with a fail in the prices of local New York specialities in the final hour. New York specialities in the final hour way a decisive factor in deiving notice.
